Clarification of News Report

“MANILA, Philippines — JG Summit Holdings Inc., the investment holding company of the Gokongwei Group, is hiking its capital expenditure budget this year by almost 30 percent to P87.5 billion as it expands some of its business segments.

During the company’s annual stockholders’ meeting Thursday, JG Summit president and chief executive officer Lance Gokongwei said the firm will spend P87.5 billion this year, higher than the P68.3 billion spent last year.

Gokongwei said its JG Summit Petrochemicals Group will get the largest capex allocation this year at P32.4 billion, in line with its continued expansion.

‘We’re investing a billion dollars (in petrochemicals). We expect that by 2020, we would expand our naphtha cracker from 320,000 tons to 480,000 tons,’ Gokongwei said.

‘We’re likewise expanding our polypropylene facilities. We are also putting in additional bimodal polyethylene, butadiene and BTX (benzene, toluene and xylene) facilities,’ he added.

Following its petrochemicals business, its airline Cebu Pacific will also get a significant capex allocation of P27.1 billion this year as it continues to work on its upsize strategy with the addition of more fuel efficient aircraft.

JG Summit’s property development arm, Robinsons Land, will get a capex budget of P18.1 billion, while its food business Universal Robina Corp. will receive an allocation of P9.1 billion.

Gokongwei disclosed that the company is also targeting some fundraising activity this year, proceeds of which will be used to refinance maturing debt.

‘I believe we have a P24 billion debt at the parent company level which is maturing in August. So we expect that we will need to refinance about P15 billion of that,’ he said.

The company official said they plan to raise the P15 billion by either tapping the bond market or on a bilateral basis with banks.

‘The rest will be funded excess cash that we generated in the year,’ he added.

Moreover, Gokongwei downplayed plans of conducting an initial public offering for Robinsons Bank in the near future.

However, he said this might be a possibility in the next five years as the company aims to be a universal bank.

JG Summit Holdings, Inc. confirms the information quoted above.

Please note, however, that the above-mentioned capital expenditure (capex) budget of Robinsons Land Corporation only pertains to its investment capex and land acquisition, and excludes developmental capex.
